Rachael Marshall's four-act drama which is sweeping through the United States like Wildfire—Flooding communities with Upwinds of Spontaneous Approvals.

The Pastor, the Publicist, the Parent, the Public, the Pandorer will find this play an Appeal, A Challenge and a Prayer. The Shock of it is its Truth.

It Conveys a lesson mightier and worthier than any false Modesty.

Its Purpose transcends even its nudity, and it strikes at huge men and powerful Agencies.

It is a challenge to Reformers. Moralists, and Preachers.

The Audiences weep at its awful scenes, laugh at its appropriate wit and humor, applaud it emphatically.

A Splendid company, headed by the renowned MISS BESS SANKEY, a complete and perfect stage equipment, help to consummate the epochal impression which this amazing play produced on the Chicago public for 14 WEEKS record engagements of Chicago for Years.

It stings, but does not INSULT—its laughter is not frivolous—its recitations are not morbid—its values cannot be expressed in money.

PRESBYTERIANS ENDORSE WILSON: SCORE "WETS"

Resolutions endorsing President Wilson for his stand in regard to the European war, and placing upon the church for a financial effort to defeat the "war" amendment to the constitution of the state featured the meeting of the Presbytery of this district at Georgetown this week. Mr. John C. Williams, delegate from this body, in a report of the meeting, said:

Georgetown lies about half way between the N. & W. Cotton River division and the Ohio river, a line between Ripley on the north and Sardinia on the N. & W. It is the terminus of the Cincinnati, Georgetown & Portsmouth Electric Railway, where a new line was started, and is expected to reach Portsmouth within a few days. It is about 10 miles up to the present point, but is going no farther than Georgetown. There is a branch of the N. & W. also running from Sardinia to Ripley, which does not go to Georgetown.

This is where Ex-President Wilson spent most of his boyhood, and the original audience which he went to school and to college. His parents lived in this place, near the Tannery, which was owned by his father, and now occupied by a grist mill. There are brass tablets on each of these buildings setting forth their historical record.

The Portsmouth Presbytery, consisting of six counties in Southern Ohio convened here last Tuesday in the Presbyterian church of Georgetown, which was built in 1850. It is a very unique church building, having been erected according to the architectural taste at that time, with large heavy round columns in the front of the church, similar to our court house, and even today compared with modern architecture it has quite an imposing appearance.

There were gathered here some 40 or 50 pastors and laymen from the different Presbyteries of each county. Each church was represented by a pastor and laymen. We were royally entertained by the Presbyterians of Georgetown. They scarcely tried to make it pleasant during our sojourn there.

The work of the church was fully discussed, and plans made for a general forward movement

NEWS OF CONFERENCE

Washington, C. D., Sept. 19.—Conditions at the Ohio M. R. conference, in session here, are beginning to assume form, so far as some of the appointments are concerned, if any evidence is to be given to the floating rumors.

There is a rumor that Dr. J. C. Appleby, who retires from the superintendency of the Lakes district, may succeed Dr. A. H. Nelson as superintendent of the Zanesville district, where Dr. Nelson has been named to succeed the late Rev. C. E. Wagoner, who superintended the Lakes district for the past year. Another rumor is that Dr. J. C. Appleby will probably be appointed superintendent of the Lancaster district, to succeed Dr. J. A. McFarland.

Dr. A. H. Nelson is expected to be named to succeed Dr. J. C. Appleby as superintendent of the Lakes district, and Dr. W. H. C. Hastings, and Dr. M. R. McFarland, as superintendents of the Zanesville and Lancaster districts, respectively.

I did so and never knew a real day afterwards. I lost weight, my appetite never allowed me to get up as I now enjoy it for once, until I could not be up long enough to cook a meal. I only weighed 70. My husband got me a bottle of CARDUI, and the first three doses helped. Now I weigh 155 pounds, and feel fine. I cannot say enough in favor of the remedy, for it has made me well."

ward to meditation and the speedy end of the European war. We deeply deplore conditions in Europe, and would petition Almighty God that through the influence of His Holy Spirit hostilities will soon cease.

Resolved, That we as a Presbytery in session this 15th day of September, 1914, being representative of the Presbyterian churches in Southern Ohio, do go on record as being unanimous in condemning the amendment to the Ohio State constitution as presented by the Brewers' Association. We consider this the most damaging, illogical, illegal, and irresponsible proposition ever presented to citizens of this or any other state of the Union. We resolve and further regard it as an abominable and further regard it as an abominable body blow at all that stands for moral, social, political and religious progress. We therefore ask that all members of churches in this Presbytery as well as pastors, uphold the desires of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, U. S. A. and we resolve that by prayer, practice and the use of the ballot, shall forever sweep from this state and this nation, and all economic liquors as a beverage."

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, work, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise.—At what age is it proper for a girl to start out in company?

SWEET SIXTEEN.
I don't quite get you, little one, unless you mean to ask at what age a girl should have a beau. I suppose a beau is permissible at 18, but a girl shouldn't take either the beau or herself seriously at that age.

Ashtand, Ky., Sept. 18.—Dear Miss Wise.—I am a girl of 16. I am going with a boy 20. I want to the park and he couldn't go. His brother showed me a new time. Do you think it was born for him to do so? How long should a girl go with a boy till they are married? Can you tell me what will remove the cream stains out of brown paper? And what will remove blackheads?

ASHLAND KID.
I think it was awfully sweet of your friend's brother to take you to the park when your steady could not go. I am sure there was nothing wrong about it. A girl of 16 is entirely too young to think of marriage. At three or four years yet. A couple should keep company long enough to get acquainted and learn about each other's habits and disposition. I should say from a year to two years is plenty long enough to keep company. Gasoline or benzine will take the stain out. Black heads are nothing more than dirt in the pores of your skin. Give your face a good scrubbing every day with warm water and a good soap, rub it with a rough towel. Rub cold cream on the face awhile before washing it.

Dear Dolly.—Is it proper for a young lady to ask her gentleman friend in after coming home from the movies say about nine or nine-thirty, or should the young man ask to come in?

PIZZLED NEUTIE.
If she wishes him to come in, she should ask him if he would like to do so. It is not his place to ask.

Dear miss wise. I am a Bachelor girl and am crazy to raise chickens I mean I want a regular poultry farm do you think it would be foolish to try it next spring I haven't much money to start out does it cost a great deal to raise chickens I am 30 years old never had any experience in raising chickens is my riding bad?

BLAZE EYES.
I do not know of any better business than raising chickens. There is always a great demand for fresh eggs and spring chickens. I do not think it would take a great deal of money to start with. If you buy an incubator it will probably cost you a little more than otherwise, but I think it would be cheaper in the long run. Chickens are not hard to raise. Would advise you to ask a poultry expert in your country.

some chicken fancier as to the best layers before you buy any chickens or "setters." Your writing is not so bad, but your spelling is horrid. It might be a good idea to study your spelling book while waiting for the hens to lay.

Dear Dolly Wise.—I seen in your letters the other night where some one asked you what would cure a lump on their neck. If it's a goitre, I had one on my neck and took heavy brown paper and vinegar and salt and put it on and it cured me.

A READER.
Dear Dolly.—How can a voile dress be washed?

MADELINE.
Cotton voile can be washed with warm water and a good white soap. Don't rub it on the board—just squeeze and squeeze it. Don't wring it dry—just squeeze the water out between the hands and hang up to dry on a coat hanger.

Dear Dolly.—I am fifteen years old. Am I too young to talk to the boys?

BLUE EYES.
Not too young to talk to them if you have anything sensible to talk about, but too young to consider them as a beau. I don't know who the boy is you inquired about. Why don't you go down there and find out yourself.

Dear Dolly.—Please give me some advice. I have been going with a fellow for one year and four months. Do you think he will ever marry me? He never talks about it at anytime, but he says he loves me. Now Dolly, I don't believe he does, do you?

LOVE SICK GIRL.
If he doesn't say anything about getting married within the next six months better turn him down. Two years is long enough to go with any man if he hasn't any intention of marriage. In the meantime, if you have any other friends go out with them once in awhile.

Dear Miss Dolly Wise.—Do you know where the headquarters of the B. S. W. is? I would like to know if the B. S. W. is going to start an account and give people advice for nothing. If it is, I would like to have some for we are not able to buy it all the time.

A READER.
I have never heard of any one going to give away free. It's good enough now to get along without free.

Dear Miss Wise. Will you please tell me if I can get post cards with "Welcome to the home of the B. S. W." and if so where can I get them? I would like to have some for we are not able to buy it all the time.

recipe for nut bread? If one has already appeared will you give me date of issue and oblige.

A SUBSCRIBER.
I have a recipe for nut cookies, but none for nut bread. Here is the cookie recipe:

One cup butter, 1 1/2 cups sugar, 2 eggs, one cup nuts, one cup raisins, one teaspoon soda, dissolved in two teaspoons water, one teaspoon cinnamon, one nutmeg, flour to make stiff enough to drop from the spoon size of thick-ory nuts.

Dear Dolly.—A neighbor boy is sick and I would like to send him flowers. Would that be all right?

LILLY.
Send him the flowers if you wish, with a little note saying you are sorry to know that he is ill and hope he will soon recover.

Dear Dolly.—Please publish the names of the daily papers in Bedford City, Virginia, and Lynchburg, Virginia.

Soldiers' Letters Tell Of The Horrors Of European War

Bordeaux, France, Sept. 19.—There has been given out official information concerning incidents of the fighting and personal experiences which had been obtained by German prisoners of French troops at a battle at Rheims between the 14th and 19th of September.

A German military officer wrote: "Modern war is the greatest of horrors. Companies of 200 men in the 10th army corps have been reduced to 70 men and there are companies of the guards commanded by volunteers, all the officers having disappeared."

The following is taken from a letter written by a German captain of infantry:

"We were caught by the French and I lost my company. Searching for it in a village, I

Germans Evacuate Two Belgian Towns

Antwerp, (via London,) Sept. 19.—The Telegram report received here says that the town of Den Denderme (Ternouwe), 16 miles east of Ghent and Londerzeel, 11 miles northwest of Brussels, have been evacuated by the Germans.

This is the first time that these places have been free of the invaders since the removal of the Capital from Brussels to Antwerp. The street lamps of Antwerp are kept burning from 7:30 until eight o'clock at night.

PRICES IN WAR ZONE ARE LOWER THAN IN THE U. S.

"America is suffering more from the war than Germany is," exclaimed Dr. Otto Diekmann, of 3418 Cornell place, Cincinnati, upon his return from the old country yesterday. "Eggs were selling for 6 cents a dozen in Rotterdam, Holland, when I left. The reason? Because the Hollanders could not export them. On my arrival in Cincinnati I find that eggs are bringing from 35 to 45 cents a dozen, retail. Everything that can't be exported is cheaper in Europe, and everything that comes from abroad is higher. However, in the United States, I find both the stuff that we import and export are higher. This is proof that a dire combination exists. There is no truth in the false, that eggs are $2.50 a dozen in Holland. There was nothing less for eggs in Holland than in Cincinnati."

German Force Has Been Surrounded In Forest Is The Report

London, Sept. 19.—The correspondent of the Daily Telegraph at Subiers, telegraphing under date of Sept. 15, via Paris, says:

"It is reported that a German force with a general in command has been surrounded in the forest of Chateau Thierry. The news are now among the army leaders and troops, and everything points to the probability of one of the bloodiest battles of the campaign."

Note: Chateau Thierry is 35 miles southwest of Rheims. If this dispatch is true it shows that the German center has advanced much farther than the official German report given out in Paris admitted.
